Recovery Screening

Gillis Delaney offers a screening service for your property and liability claims which will determine whether any recovery action is available. A quick telephone call may put you on the right track towards a potential recovery.

Contract Review

Gillis Delaney offers a contract review service to identify the impact contracts will have on insurance programs examining issues that arise from:

- Indemnity and insurance clauses
- Proportionate liability exclusion clauses
- Other insurance clauses in insurance contracts
- Using subcontractors and liability for subcontractors

CLAIMS

We offer a broad range of services in insurance claims litigation and can assist you with a wide range of insurance classes, including:

- Public and products liability
- Professional indemnity
- Property and ISR
- Construction and contract works
- Directors & officers' liability
- Employment liability
- Compulsory third party insurance
- Financial risk
- Marine and aviation
- Catastrophic claims

We stand by our promise to deliver superior services by simplifying issues rather than over-complicating them. We explain information in plain language and respond promptly and effectively. We keep you informed and ensure investigators, assessors, experts, collection agents and loss adjusters who assist in claims provide value-for-money services. We are committed to delivering a quality claims service in a manner which will exceed your expectations.
